outside engagements. It is only by taking up outside work that these musicians can make their emoluments correspond to the amount they would be able to earn in civil life. The consideration of the department of this matter is earnestly requested.

"This band differs in its status from any other in the naval or military service of the Government. It is called upon to perform at the most important ceremonies connected with governments functions, where its program is subject to the criticism of the diplomatic and other representatives of the nations of the world. For this reason, if for no other, it is considered essential that the performent band warmly for the excellent service has rendered in the hist veer and outside the excellent service has rendered in the hist veer and outside to many the excellent results and warmly for the excellent service has rendered in the hist veer and outside two many conditions.
